WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair tonight and Thursday; light north-west to north winds.

Delegates Elected.

The democrats of this city last night held meetings in the several wards and elected five delegates in each to the State convention which meets in Richmond tomorrow.

In the First ward the meeting was held at the Elks' Social Hall. Mr. W. B. Doble presided and Messrs. Alton Moore, F. M. Hill, Hubert Snowden, Samuel Rendheim and John A. Marshall were elected delegates. Messrs. Hill and Moore declined and Judge J. K. M. Norton and Mr. J. M. Hill were elected in their stead. A resolution was adopted allowing the delegates to name their own alternates.

In the Second ward the meeting was held at the Police Court room. Mr. G. E. Fisher presided and Messrs. Thomas A. Fisher, C. C. Carlin, John M. Reed, E. E. Downham and J. Y. Williams were elected delegates. Mr. Williams stated that he would be unable to attend the convention and Mr. L. H. Machen was elected delegate in his stead.

The Third ward meeting was held at Odd Fellows' Hall. Mr. S. P. Fisher presided. The following delegates were elected: S. G. Brent, John T. Harrison, James R. Caton, R. H. Cox and Gardner L. Booth.

The Fourth ward meeting was held in the Friendship engine house. Mr. O. F. Carter presided, and Messrs. C. Randolph Davis, Charles Bendheim, O. F. Carter, Charles B. Marshall and Frank C. Spinks, jr., were elected delegates.

After the election a meeting of the delegates was held at the office of Mr. C. C. Carlin. Mr. S. G. Brent was chosen chairman and Mr. C. C. Carlin secretary. A resolution to adopt the unit rule met with some opposition from several, but was finally adopted unanimously. Judge J. K. M. Norton was chosen chairman of the delegation.

The delegates unanimously endorsed Hon. T. S. Martin for the United States Senate, Mr. C. C. Carlin for presidential elector, and Mr. Gardner L. Booth for re-election as member of the State democratic committee from the Eighth district.

Arlington Institute.

The session of 1903-04 of Arlington Institute closed last night, the graduating class as usual furnishing the entertainment for their friends and schoolmates.

"Laddie" was recited by Miss Hildreth Gatewood in a manner to bring out very forcibly the pathos of the piece, while Miss Rebecca Uhler's recitation of "The Judgment Day" created much amusement.

Miss Nancy Tackett read an excellent essay, written by herself, upon Shakespeare's Heroines; and Miss Ellen Fawcett rendered the French poem "Pour les Pauvres" with admirable pronunciation and spirit. The recitation was very softly by Miss Jessie Armstrong, a former graduate of Arlington Institute. "Sing Me to Sleep" sung by Miss Alice Steele was much appreciated. Miss Lindinger who was Miss Steele's accompanist kindly added several piano pieces in her own exquisite style.

In addition to the entertainment furnished by Class A, were read two prize compositions, the one by Miss Jean Willis of Class C, and the other by Miss Louise Rixey of Class D.

Each pupil received a certificate of her grade in the school for the past session, and the exercises closed with the presentation of the Arlington Institute graduating pins to the four graduates: Miss Ellen Douglas Fawcett, Miss Hildreth Gatewood, Miss Nancy Lee Fendall Tackett and Miss Rebecca Lloyd Uhler.

Exquisite flowers were presented to each of the four graduates, these gifts coming from many friends and relatives. The rain prevented the usual gathering on the lawn under the bright lanterns, but in the house all seemed to have a happy time. One grandmother braved the weather, and had the pleasure of seeing a beloved granddaughter receive her graduating medal.

K. of C. Excursion.

The excursion to be given by Fitzgerald Council, K. of C., to River View tomorrow, promises to be the largest which has left Alexandria this season. As this is the first excursion out of Alexandria to River View this year it is expected that a large number of persons will go with the Knights to the place "where the cool breezes blow." Besides the numerous attractions at the resort the committee in charge of the excursion have arranged for a baseball game, a tub race, a sack race, a 100 yards dash, a pie eating contest, a boat race and the catching of a greased pig. The steamer Samuel J. Pentz will leave Reardon's wharf at 10 a. m., 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. A special return trip will be made from River View to Alexandria at 8 p. m.

Spectators Debarred.

Justice Caton has inaugurated a new regime in the Police Court by which all persons not witnesses or directly interested in the cases to be tried are excluded from the room. Heretofore numbers of persons, mostly colored, have made the Police Court room a resort, especially in cold weather, and have stood first on one leg and then on the other listening to the evidence in the various matters at issue. There is reason to believe that some left their employment to enjoy the proceedings of the court. This morning the space without the bar was cleared, but before the court adjourned some individuals of leisure were seen on the steps leading to the room with their heads on a line with the floor eager to see and hear all that transpired.

Disorderly Conduct.

Some excitement was caused in front of a north Royal street saloon early last night by a fight which occurred between two young men. Bystanders soon brought the "mill" to a sudden close, and Officer Beach having appeared immediately upon the scene arrested one of the belligerents. The other got away, but he was found this morning. One of the parties was fined $2.50, and the other was dismissed.

Vagrants Liberated.

The last Legislature passed a law in reference to vagrancy, making the offense a misdemeanor and providing punishment therefor. By virtue of the law Justice Caton, who has recently had several vagrants brought before him, has sent them to jail under Commonwealth's warrants. A few days ago Mr. R. H. Cox, City Sergeant, sent a bill of $43.75 for the maintenance of several delinquents, to the State Auditor. The latter transmitted the account to Attorney General Anderson, when this official informed him that the costs of maintaining the prisoners should not be paid out of the State treasury. Mr. Cox was accordingly notified of the action of the Attorney General. Mr. S. G. Brent, subsequently wrote a letter to Mr. Anderson in explanation of the matter, in which he called attention to the fact that the commitments had been made in pursuance of a law of the Legislature. This morning Mr. Brent received the following letter from Mr. Anderson:

Office of Attorney General of Virginia, Richmond, June 7th, 1904.

Samuel G. Brent, esq., Attorney for the Commonwealth, Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sir:—The effect of the legislation referred to in your letter is to make no provision for the costs and expenses incurred in connection with the custody of vagrants.

There is certainly no provision positively requiring that such expenses shall be paid out of the State treasury.

By the provisions of section 886 of the code (repealed by the act of January 2, 1904), the counties were required to pay any deficiency in the costs and expenses incurred in connection with the "vagrant act" after applying the hire of the vagrant.

The legislature contented itself with repealing section 886, and made no provision whatsoever as to how much deficiency should be paid, unless it be that contained in section 883 of the code as amended by the acts of 1902-3, 4, page 749, in reference to the establishment of chain gangs.

The Auditor has very properly ruled that he is not authorized to pay any bills which are not plainly required by law to be paid out of the State treasury. He cannot pay out a dollar except pursuant to positive enactment.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM A. ANDERSON.

If the legislature intended the "deficiency" to be paid out of the State treasury it would have been very easy to have said so.

W. A. A.

Justice Caton has accordingly suspended the commitments of several persons who were sent to jail as vagrants, and the parties were liberated. This action on the part of the State authorities practically renders the vagrant act in the code inoperative.

Russell-Pollard Nuptials.

St. Timothy's Church of Herndon, Fairfax county, was the scene of a very pretty wedding Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock, when Miss Lydia Grimes, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles F. Russell, of Herndon, was united in matrimony to Mr. William Thompson Pollard, of this city. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and June flowers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John McNabb, rector of St. Timothy's Church. Mr. William Worcester, of Washington, presided at the organ. To the beautiful strains of Lohengrin's wedding march the bridal party entered the church. The ushers, Messrs. Jesse B. K. Lee, Roy Conrad and Dr. Arthur Crane, of Washington, and Mr. Thomas A. Hulish, of Alexandria, led the bridal party, followed by the bridesmaids who were Misses Mary Cady, Irwin and Johnson, of Washington, and Miss Pollard, of Alexandria, sister of the groom. The maid of honor, Miss Russell, sister of the bride, and the bride accompanied by her father completed the procession. The bride was met at the altar by the groom, who was attended by his brother, Mr. Frank D. Pollard, of Alexandria, as best man. The bride wore a beautiful creation of white crepe de chine and the customary tulle veil. She carried a shower-bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was attired in cream net over china silk and carried white sweet-peas. The bridesmaids were uniformly gowned in white Paris-muslin with green girdles and carried pink sweet-peas, tied with green gauze ribbon. After a reception and bounteous collation at the home of the bride's parents, the happy couple left amid showers of rice and rose-petals for a sea voyage to the New England coast. The bride is extensively known and very popular in the younger set of Washington, Alexandria and Herndon. She was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, the major part of which consisted of cut glass, silver and plate. The groom is employed in the office of the Southern Railway and has a large circle of friends throughout the south. He is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Pollard. Mr. and Mrs. William T. Pollard will make their home in this city.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Albert Brown and "Tag" Wilson, both colored, arrested by Officer Henderson, charged with disorderly conduct, were dismissed.

A man, arrested by Officer Beach for disorderly conduct, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

A man, arrested by Officer Beach charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

The cases of a man charged with disorderly conduct, and a boy charged with running a bicycle over a little child were postponed until six o'clock this evening.

Deaths and Funerals.

Mrs. Mary Ayers died at Providence Hospital, Washington, yesterday. She had been a resident of this city. Her remains will be shipped to Fauquier county by W. Demaine & Son for interment. The deceased had been a sufferer from peritonitis.

Dennis Carter, a well-known colored resident, died at his home in this city yesterday morning.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Martha E. Spicer took place from the residence on King street this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Wallis.

Correction.

William R. P. Taylor, of this city, was appointed a cadet at the Annapolis Naval Academy, not West Point, as was stated yesterday.

A Necessary Expense.

Advertising is no longer a matter of caprice or experiment in the case of enterprising and successful business men. "The merchants," says a well-known advertiser, "have been educated up to the idea of placing their newspaper advertising expenses in the same category as rent and the other customary and imperative running expenses."—Philadelphia Record.

Personal.

Mrs. E. W. Bragg, of Monroe, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Witt, on Grove street, has gone to Alexandria to visit Mrs. John Vaughan.—(Charlottesville Progress.)

Among the graduates in medicine at Georgetown College last night was Mr. William Elwin Rogers, of this city.

The home of Mrs. F. Kramer presented a very pretty scene last night, the occasion being the 64th anniversary of her natal day. The residence was handsomely decorated with palms, ferns and cat flowers. There was a gathering of her children and grandchildren, and all spent an enjoyable evening. After refreshments were served all left for their homes wishing Mrs. Kramer many more such happy occasions.

Cards have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Dyson for the marriage of their sister, Miss Mary L. Shirley, to Mr. Frank Anderson Barger, of Washington, D. C.

Most of the delegates elected last night to the Richmond convention left today for that city.

Mr. W. H. Cox has returned from Sperryville.

Special Officer Appointed.

Judge Nicol, of the Circuit Court for this district, has appointed Mr. C. S. Oliver, of Fairfax county, a special officer with all powers under the State law to arrest any and all persons who are guilty of polluting a water course.

The appointment was made at the instance of the Alexandria Water Company, which is anxious to keep the supply of water pure and clear. The company has employed Mr. Oliver to keep a constant patrol of the water courses which feed the city's supply, and Judge Nicol has conferred upon him full power to make arrests for any infraction of the law.

Sermons from Dr. Rice.

Rev. Dr. Theron H. Rice, of Atlanta, Ga., a former pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of this city, will deliver a missionary address before the "Lazarus Workers" and "Helpers" societies of that church tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Tomorrow night at 8 o'clock he will deliver his celebrated address on "The Bible and the Home" in the same church. All his old friends and the public are invited to attend both these services. Dr. Rice and his sister sail for Europe next Saturday from New York.

Fight on Fayette Street.

A vicious fight took place early this afternoon on Fayette street, near Cameron, between two young colored men, during which one of the combatants drew a knife and attempted to cut his adversary. The latter picked up a brick with which he inflicted a serious cut on the head of his antagonist.

Worst of all Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Deatur, Ala. "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, at such and such trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel trouble, Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.
